

Warsaw, 23rd April 2007

Dear Sirs,

The Polish Information and Foreign Investment Agency invites you to participate in the World Economic Congress of Polonia which will take place on 16-18 June 2007. The first day is scheduled in Warsaw, while the next two days in the Lublin voivodeship.

The Congress will aim at strengthening the economic ties between Poland and Polonia and presenting investment opportunities in Poland, as well as encouraging Polish companies to cooperate in this field. We intend to build a conducive climate, to develop ties with Polonia and to assure that the economic activity of Polonia in their old country, is encouraged by Polish government and the business environment.

During the Congress the new idea of economic cooperation with the Polonia business community will be presented, as well as the offer contributing to a better quality of bilateral ties; such as the opening of the POLONIA BUSINESS CENTRE in Warsaw.

The participation, food and accommodation are free of charge, as well as the cost of transportation across Poland. However, the cost of accommodation in Warsaw is not free, but our guests will be able to obtain lower prices at hotels in Warsaw.

Moreover, in a case of reasonable circumstances PAIiIZ may make a payment for the accommodation.

The person coordinating the project is Hanna Rakowska from the Regional Cooperation Department, e-mail: hanna.rakowska@paiz.gov.pl.

In case of any organisational questions, please contact Agnieszka Sulenta, e-mail: agnieszka.sulenta@paiz.gov.pl.

If you are interested in participating in Congress please send us confirmation, to Agnieszka Sulenta containing the following details: the name of the company, address and telephone number, the business of the company and what kind of cooperation the company is interested in. The confirmation should be sent by 8 th May 2007. We will send you an invitation and specific program, together with an entry card.

The Congress will be held in Polish, but the sessions will simultaneously be translated into English.

We kindly invite you and we would very much appreciate your participation.

Regards,

Joanna Wolff
Regional Cooperation Department Director
Polish Information and Foreign Investment Agency
