Compositions. Mr. Mndoyants is a 19-year old prodigy virtuoso and composer, who won the First Prize at the Paderewski International Piano Competition in Bydgoszcz, Poland, in 2007.

Saturday, November 15 will have several events of great interest to the fans of Paderewski in California. A special screening of Moonlight Sonata, the 1937 film in which Paderewski not only performs in recital but also has a large speaking role, will be presented at 11 a.m. in the Park Cinema, downtown Paso Robles. This screening is free and open to the public. Another free public event that day will be the exhibit of Paderewski's memorabilia, shown from noon until 4 p.m. in the Matador Room of the Paso Robles Inn. Still another free event that Saturday is the Winners' Recital of the 2008 Paderewski Youth Piano Competition. The most talented young pianists from San Luis Obispo County will present a program at 4 p.m. at the Ballroom of the Paso Robles Inn. Between the Winners' Recital and the Gala Concert, "Elegant Evening" will be held in downtown Paso Robles, featuring merchants and residents celebrating the Victorian heritage of this historic California town with special costumes and exhibits that are also free and open to the public.

Finally, the 2008 Paderewski Festival will conclude on Sunday, November 16, with a 10 a.m. Polish Mass at the Saint Rose of Lima Church in Paso Robles. At 11 a.m., the Mass will be followed by a Polish brunch and a historical discussion of the "Paderewski's Paso Robles Connection," given by a long-time fan and collector of Paderewski's memorabilia, Christine Smith.

The attorney will analyze the possibilities of a successful application and assist through the entire process, as well as keeping the employer informed of its obligations. While an attorney cannot guarantee what the results will be of any particular test of the job market, they can assist in drafting the proposed ad and postings, getting the prevailing wage, completing the application forms, answering requests for clarification or assessment notices, and everything else necessary to get the labor certificate approved. The only thing which an attorney cannot do is to interview any qualified U.S. applicants (if there are any); this can only be done by the employer.

In your situation with an approved labor certificate prior to the end of your J-1, you can submit your application to adjust status to green card holder with your employer's immigrant visa petition (Form I-140) and 90 days later you will have a work card and travel authorization. At this stage, CIS will be interested in whether your employer has the money to pay your wage and your W-2 or employer's tax returns (showing a profit) for the year your labor certificate was filed are required. At the moment, these applications are taking under a year if the file is not transferred to the local office for a personal interview. □
